

In a continuing program to assist needy refugee families overseas, CARE is sending surplus food in $1 packages to Europe, Asia, and Latin America.

Marina District Selects Delegate

Mrs. E. F. Collins, first vice-president of the Marina District, Junior Membership, CFWC, will represent her group at the state-board seminar Jan. 22 and 23 in Berkeley.

Mrs. Collins was named to the post at a recent club luncheon in the home of Mrs. James Lee, parliamentarian.

Officers attending were: Mmes. Austin McNeil, Robert H. Baida, Wallace Trout, J. C. Supple, John P. Schwartz, Don Moore, and James K. Lees.

Mrs. Robert Dreizler presided.

School Group Plans Holiday Celebration

Arlington PTA board members will hold their Christmas party Thursday in the school cafeteria.

Carols will be sung under the direction of Mrs. Jerry Leonard. Gifts will be exchanged.

Mrs. Ben Anderson is event chairman; her committee comprises Nell Elrod, Helen Gailbraith, and Mmes. Floyd Quatrin, David Brandes, Walter Payne and O. E. Rooker.

Delta Zeta Group to Hold Party

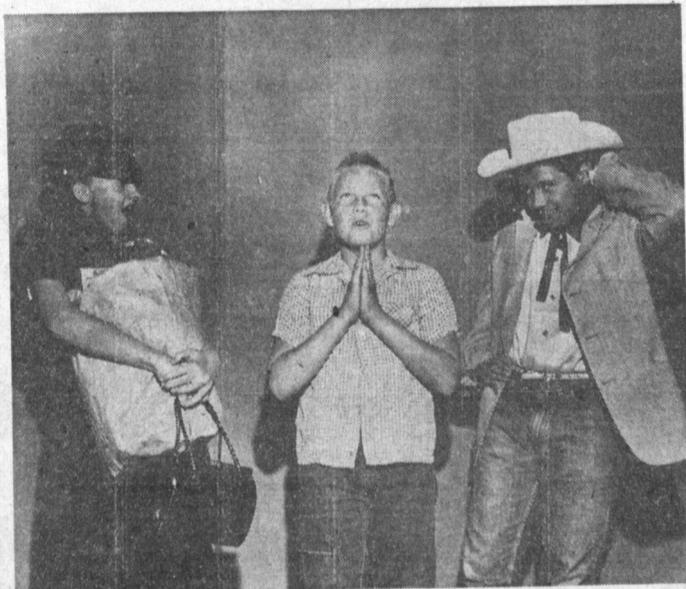

Delta Zeta, South Bay Chapter, will hold its Christmas party Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Jack C. Whipp, 2011 W. 179th St.

Plans will be completed for the group's benefit luncheon and fashion show entitled "Flame and Fashion" Feb. 6 at the Beverly Hilton Hotel.

Proceeds will go to the Unibetic Camp for diabetic children.

Surplus food for the needy overseas is available through CARE. In $1 packages, the surplus agricultural items go to feed hungry refugee children abroad.

CHRISTMAS COMEDY — Fern-Greenwood students, Kathy Rippey (left), Jim Malone and Kim Force, rehearse a scene from "Miracle of Derrick, Texas" for school's PTA party.

The actors will be under the direction of Margaret Richart and Herman Boodman. The mothersingers will conclude the evening with a program of Christmas music.

Christmas Play Scheduled at Fern-Greenwood

Fern-Greenwood PTA will view "Miracle of Derrick Texas," a comedy presented by third and seventh grade students, at its holiday meeting Dec. 17, at 7:15 p.m. in the Madrona School cafeteria.

Cooperative Housing

In the nine years since FHA mortgage insurance for cooperative housing was first authorized, it has helped more than 55,000 families to obtain housing in 1060 projects at substantially lower cost than they could have found in comparable rental housing.
